

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act protections.

I used to receive countless phone call between the hours of 5:00pm & 7:00pm. That is very annoying especially around dinner time.

My time at home has improved very much. I enjoy the peace and quiet and hope you think about this decision.